

Revolutionary Pathways

The Conscious Playground Offerings

Relational Advising

Relational Advising offers personalized guidance to help you navigate and strengthen your most important relationships. Whether you're seeking to deepen connections with loved ones, improve communication at work, or enhance your relationship with yourself, our approach is designed to meet you where you are and support your growth.

In Relational Advising, you'll:

- Receive Personalized Guidance: Work one-on-one with a skilled advisor who will help you explore and understand your relational dynamics, offering tailored strategies to enhance your connections.
- Develop Emotional Intelligence: Gain insights into your emotions and how they influence your relationships, empowering you to communicate more effectively and empathetically.
- Cultivate Authentic Connections: Learn techniques to foster trust, intimacy, and mutual respect in your relationships, creating a foundation for deeper and more meaningful interactions.
- Navigate Challenges: Receive support in addressing relational challenges, whether they involve conflict resolution, setting boundaries, or navigating transitions in your relationships.

This offering is for individuals, couples, friends, or family members—anyone looking to deepen their relationships and overcome relational challenges. If you're seeking to enhance your connections and move past any hiccups, this service is designed for you.

We aim to guide you towards what is most true and aligned in your relationships, and sometimes, this may involve a conscious and compassionate closing of the relationship.

email or call us to learn more about this offering.

revolutionary.pathways@gmail.com (541)) 816 - 5269